HEALTH TIP

With the school season approaching here are some helpful hints to get your child back into the sleep routine!

To help kids and teens get a good night's sleep:

- Remove TVs, computers, and gadgets from kids' bedrooms.
- Avoid large meals before bedtime.
- Develop a regular bedtime routine.
- Set firm bedtimes and wake times.
- Make sure the bedroom is quiet, dark, relaxing -- and not too hot or cold.
- Help kids quiet down a few hours before bedtime.
- Heavy studying, text messaging, or video games should end in early evening.

How much sleep do school kids need? It depends on the child. But here are some general guidelines from the National Sleep Foundation:

- Ages 3-5: 11-13 hours
- Ages 5-12: 10-11 hours
- Ages 11-17: 9.5-9.25 hours

SPEEDING

Reminder for those speeding through town, we have a 50-km/hr speed zone. We will be asking the

Finding the Right Job

In honor of Labor Day, here's a first person report of someone who was not quite as successful as he had hoped to be in the job market:

As a young man

My first job was in an orange juice factory, but I couldn't concentrate on the same old boring rind, so I got canned.

Then I worked in the woods as a lumberjack, but I just couldn't hack it, so they gave me the axe.

After that, I tried working in a donut shop, but I soon got tired of the hole business.

I manufactured calendars, but my days were numbered.

I tried to be a tailor, but I just wasn't suited for it. Mainly because it was a sew-sew job, de-pleating and de-pressing.

I took a job as an upholsterer, but I never recovered.

Later in life

Then I became a personal trainer in a gym, but they said I wasn't fit for the job.

I thought about being a historian, but I couldn't see a future in it.

Next I was an electrician, but I found the work shocking and revolting, so they discharged me.

I tried being a teacher, but I soon lost my principal, my faculties, and my class.

I turned to farming, but I wasn't outstanding in my field.

I took a job as an elevator operator. The job had its ups and downs, and I got the shaft.

I sold origami, but the business folded.

Finally:

I took a job at UPS, but I couldn't express myself.

I tried being a fireman, but I suffered burnout.

I became a banker, but I lacked interest and maturity, and finally withdrew from the job.

I was a professional fisherman, but I couldn't live on my net income.

I next worked in a shoe factory, but I just didn't fit in. They thought I was a loafer, and I got the boot.

I worked at Starbucks, but I had to quit because it was always the same old grind.

So I've retired, and I find I'm a perfect fit for this job!
